On December 18, 1965 Fred Korman, an electrician from Manville opened the doors of the Owl’s Head Ski for the first time. With the support and hard work of his wife, Lillian and then his daughter, Carol, what started out as a hobby, transformed into a four season enterprise and one of the best ski and golfing centres in Quebec.

In respect of the rich and abundant heritage of the region, the Korman family decided to maintain the name of the mountain in honour of Abenaki chief, Owl whose reclining profile is said to resemble the mountain’s summit.

The Ski Patrol sends out a big thanks to all who came out to support the Kormans’ on their 50th Anniversary of Owl’s Head and the Canadian Ski Patrol during their 75th.
