Sports

Next up for the Canadian women is Rio and the Summer Olympics.

Canadian women defeat Australia to win Clermont Ferrand Sevens tournament

The Canadian Press
CLERMONT FERRAND, FRANCE

Canada finished the Women's Sevens Series on a high point Sunday, upsetting Australia 29-19 to capture the Cup at the Clermont-Ferrand Sevens.

With captain Jen Kish injured, Ghislaine Landry hoisted the trophy in the final stop of the five-event circuit. Canada's Kelly Russell was named player of the final.

Next up for the Canadian women is Rio and the Summer Olympics.

Australia, which won stops in Dubai, Sao Paulo and Atlanta before finishing third in Langford, B.C., finished first in the overall season standings with 94 points. New Zealand was second with 80 and Canada moved into third on 74 points, edging England on points difference.

New Zealand dispatched England 22-5 to finish third in Clermont. France defeated the U.S. 22-19 to win the Plate and finish fifth.

Landry, Russell, Britt Benn and Magali Harvey scored as Canada led Australia 26-7 at the half. Benn, sporting stitches after being cut Saturday, also made a try-saving tackle. Landry added three conversions and a penalty for Canada.

Chloe Dalton, Elia Green and Emily Cherry scored for Australia

With Landry in the sin bin midway through the second half, Cherry's converted try cut the lead to 26-19. But Landry, who scored seven tries during the weekend, added an insurance penalty to pad the lead to 10 points,

It was Canada's fifth win in 15 meeting with Australia. It was also the second Cup final this season for the Canadians, who were blanked 29-0 by Australia in February in the Sao Paulo championship game.

Earlier Sunday, the Canadian women downed Fiji in the Cup quarter-final 12-5 and England 31-10 in the semifinal.

Landry scored both tries against Fiji and added three more against England with singles coming from Bianca Farella and Karen Paquin.

Canada finished second in its pool Saturday, defeating Japan 21-15 and Russia 29-12 before losing 19-17 to New Zealand.

Late equalizer gets Philadelphia draw in clash of leaders

The Associated Press
COMMERCE CITY, COLORADO

Philadelphia's Brian Carroll scored in the second minute of stoppage time to snatch a 1-1 draw for the Union at Colorado on Saturday in the clash of Major League Soccer's Eastern and Western Conference leaders.

Colorado thought it had secured victory with a goal in the 87th minute, but there was just enough time for the Union to respond.

Philadelphia's lead at the top of the East was trimmed to one point ahead of New York, which won against Toronto, and Montreal which beat Los Angeles thanks to a stoppage-time winner by Didier Drogba.

Colorado pushed hard late and hit the bar twice before deservedly going ahead when Sam Cronin ran to meet a cross from the right, and glanced his near-post header past the goalkeeper.

The Union extended its unbeaten streak to seven, while the Rapids stayed unbeaten in their nine home games this season.

Dallas goalkeeper Chris Seitz blocked Tommy Thompson's header in the 88th minute to preserve a 0-0 draw at San Jose.

Earthquakes keeper David Bingham also made a critical late save as he stopped Matt Hedges' shot in the 90th.

Montreal veteran Didier Drogba saw his speculative long-range shot in stoppage time get past the goalkeeper and give the Impact a 3-2 win against Los Angeles.

Galaxy goalkeeper Brian Rowe missed a punch attempt on the 30-yard strike and the ball spun into the back of the net.

Ignacio Piatti and Lucas Ontivero also scored to help Montreal end a six-game winless streak.

Giovani dos Santos and Mike Magee scored for the Galaxy in their first loss in 10 matches.

New York's Bradley Wright-Phillips scored his first hat trick since 2014 to lead the Red Bulls past Toronto 3-0.

Wright-Phillips scored in the fourth, 25th and 27th minutes for the fastest hat trick in MLS history. He has eight goals in the past seven games - the Red Bulls are 5-1-1 in that span - after going scoreless in the first seven.

New York won comfortably despite being a man down after Gonzalo Veron was shown a red card in the 43rd.

Toronto is winless in its last four matches.

Youth talent show - music, dance and monkey business

THE SCOOP

MABLE HASTINGS

On Saturday, June 4 at 7:00pm in the Mansonville Elementary School gymnasium, the Missisquoi North Volunteer Centre Youth Program will present a Youth Talent Show for all to enjoy. Entrance at the door is a $5.00 donation per adult and the funds raised will be used to cover Talent Show expenses and costumes. Youth are admitted for free. Following the show there will be cookies and beverages free of charge through donations from the parents.

The boys group, girls group, dance group all for youth ages 5-12 as well as the Students Against Destructive Decisions (SADD) group for youth ages 12-18 will be performing. Special guest performer will be Christian Rodrigue who is kind enough to fill in with musical numbers allowing the groups to have time to change into their costumes between acts.

All of the youth have been busy preparing and practicing for the show with new dance music as well as some retro favorites. Elvis, Michael Jackson, Chubby Checker, Grease, Kenny Rogers and a whole lot more as these youth bring their love for music and motion to you.

The Missisquoi North Youth Centre offers weekly programs for youth Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays and has done so for over 30 years now. CAB Director: Youth and Special Programs, Mable Hastings assisted by her staff, Eleanor Cote, Jenny Royea and volunteers Patricia Lachance (parent) and Norma Clifford have been working with the kids for months to prepare them for the show. Parent volunteers will help that evening as well as the Former Youth Involvement (FYI) older youth who support all YC events.

There will be a photo display as well as a photo area for parents and friends to take their picture with their favorite little star after the show. It will be a night of movement, smiles, joy, fun and memories. No advance tickets, pay at the door, seating is limited.

For more information contact the Youth Centre at 450-292-4886

Getting ready for the show!

MABLE HASTINGS