Fun for youth of all ages...

THE SCOOP MABLE HASTINGS

The Missisquoi North Volunteer Centre (CAB) Youth program is proudly preparing for its June Talent Show. With the ski program now done for the season, this Saturday, March 18, youth ages 5-12 gathered to begin practicing new dances for the big show! This year's show will take us from the days of Disco to modern hip hop. The dance group meets every Saturday from 1-3pm in the basement dance floor area of the youth center where the kids work hard, exercise a lot and mix in some good fun too. The dance program is followed by the young Leadership group at 3pm through to 4:30pm. The Leadership group has grown to over 20 and this Saturday was spent creating their personal Tool Kit to stop bullying and destructive behavior. This dynamic group of young leaders strives to make the community better, one youth at a time.

On Friday and Saturday evenings the Youth Centre offers something for the older youth ages 12 to 20+ with pool tables, ping pong, air hockey, nintendo, table soccer, computers, dance and more. Friday evening, March 17 the youth had a modelling night where they dressed up in costumes and had their photos taken with friends. For more information about the Missisquoi North Youth Program for all ages, contact the Centre at 450-292-4886 or visit the website at www.cabmn.org
