everyone a chance to sit and talk before the summer break where many shared their vacation plans and discussed their summer jobs.

The CABMN youth programs will now break until September when the weekly programs re-start. Start-up dates and details will appear on the CABMN website in the fall at www.cabmn.org. For over thirty five years the Volunteer Centre has been offering weekly programs for youth ages 5 and up that run ten months of the year. These groups include leadership, dance, sports, theatre, Students Against Destructive Decisions (SADD), Former Youth Involvement (FYI), Boys and Girls groups and many other activities.

The youth centre staff are sending out their wishes to all of the youth and their families for a safe and fun-filled summer. For more information contact: m.hastings@cabmn.org or visit the CABMN website.

To Market, to Market, to Buy a...

Fat pig? Fat chance, unless porky happens to be of the vintage variety – blushing, bashful, and ceramic with a coin slot in his back!

The Brome County Museum's annual Antique/Vintage/Craft Markets are here again, with the first of four taking place on Sunday, June 24 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on the museum grounds. The remaining dates are July 22, August 19, and September 16.

This cherished local summer tradition attracts dealers and vendors from near and far offering a variety of quality antique and vintage wares, like pine furniture made in old Quebec, trunks and tools from the American Civil War era, heirloom textiles, collectible glass and china, and trinkets from days not-so-long-gone-by, like toys and piggy banks. Additionally, there are hand-crafted items available, including unique jewellery and fashion accessories, luxurious home-made soaps, and delicious home-baked goods like Grandma used to make.

The markets take place rain or shine and are open to treasure seekers and bargain hunters free of charge. There is a student-run canteen featuring "Wesley's Wieners" and "Eggsellent Sandwiches," in operation under the tent and a new student-curated special exhibit, "The Colour of Canvas: Brome County's Artistic Tradition", open to visitors free of charge in the Centennial Building.

The museum is the place to be on market day for antique/vintage/craft pickers...and asylum seeking pigs.

Also not-to-be-missed is the BCHS "Dominion Day Picnic" which takes place on the museum grounds on Sunday, July 1 from noon to 4 p.m. rain or shine. Join us for a nostalgic celebration of Canada's birthday featuring family-friendly games and old-time eats and drinks, like our kid-approved home-made ice-cream and our adult-approved 2018 signature beverage. The picnic and games are free for BCHS members and anyone paying museum admission fees on that day.

For more information about upcoming events and activities at the Brome County Museum, including the Antique/Vintage/Craft Markets and the Dominion Day Picnic, please call the BCHS at 450 243-6782 or visit us at bromemuseum.com. We are also having fun on Facebook!

A grand exhibition of 120 heritage photos Potton and the Townships

Submitted by Association de Patrimoine Potton

Mountains and valleys, pastoral farms, covered bridges and round barns. Some 120 photos which illustrate the best of Potton Heritage Association's exhibitions will be presented to the public every Saturday from June 23 to September 1, 2018.

In the 19th century, there were hundreds of them. Today, only 15 or so covered bridges remain in Waterville, Cowansville, Brigham and St-Armand, all still in use. Pictures of Potton's Pont de la Frontière and the Pont Drouin in Coaticook, which impatiently await restoration, are on display as well. Part of this exhibition is devoted to round
