

Familiprix 2462 in Mansonville offers conference on eczema

THE SCOOP
MABLE HASTINGS

On November 14 at 6:00pm, Pharmacist, Cathy Riendeau from the Familiprix 2462 in Mansonville will be offering a free conference on the topic of Eczema. WebMD defines Eczema as: "It's sometimes called "the itch that rashes," because the itching usually comes first. This group of skin rashes may first appear in babies and toddlers, becoming drier and flaky in older children. Adults may see scaly, leathery patches or stubborn hand eczema. Atopic dermatitis is a common, often-inherited form, but there are other types and many treatments."

Riendeau will offer a bilingual session, free of charge and participants will receive a gift bag of sample products. Feedback from other sessions offered by the Pharmacist in the past have indicated that Riendeau is very thorough, knowledgeable and helpful in finding the best products to take care of the patients specific needs. The session is sure to be informative and may shed some light on a topic that affects many people including children.
"Serving the public and answering health questions is a big part of our job," explained Riendeau who, alongside David Rousseau are the two pharmacists at the Mansonville location. "I want to share knowledge of topics that I feel will benefit our clientele and we all know that knowledge is power. Getting a treatment that works and properly dealing with Eczema is important."
If you would like more information or to sign up for this conference, contact Cathy Riendeau at 316 Rue Principale, Mansonville, (579)441-8181 (closes at 7pm).
