Volunteer centre welcomes summer student

THE SCOOP

MABLE HASTINGS

The Missisquoi North Volunteer Centre (CABMN) is proud to welcome Summer Student, Selena Chapman to its staff for the summer months. Though a Summer Student Grant made possible by the Federal Government, the CABMN is able to have an extra pair of hands while adding a vivacious personality with a beautiful smile to the team. Selena is a Bolton-Est resident and both of her parents took part in the CABMN youth programs many years ago.

The CABMN is a busy place during the summer months and many of the staff takes their vacations during this time. Having a summer student, while there is much to learn, allows others to get a well deserved break while assuring that the CABMN is open and able to provide regular services and programs.

Selena will assume reception duties working alongside reception volunteers and staff members. She is keen on the computer and although there are many things to learn, Selena will acquire the knowledge as she goes; learning, growing and gaining experience with each new day. She aspires to be an actress one day and while coming across as being a little shy, she is mature and extremely eager to learn.

nation letters to mail out as the CABMN launches its Annual Financial Campaign. This particular day she was assisted by some youth volunteers, Kate Eldridge, Jasmine Mierzwinski and Danika Robinson. Resembling "Charlie's Angels," the four filled envelopes, searched for addresses, stamped and made multiple trips to the post office; stopping for a well deserved slush beverage on the way in hopes of beating the heat.

Summer students acquire skills and work experience through these vital grants and aid organizations immensely. The CABMN is proud to be a recipient of a grant this year and as the youth come in to volunteer, year round, it is clear that summer student applicants will be plentiful for many years to come. Please stop by the CABMN and say hello to Selena, she looks forward to meeting new people everyday.

Ben by Daniel Shelton

Panel 1: A man is kneeling in a garden, looking at a dead plant. He says, "DARN... IT LOOKS LIKE THE FLOWERS I PLANTED LAST WEEK DIED..."

Panel 2: A woman with glasses looks at him. She says, "THE GARDEN CENTER GUY SAID THEY WERE EASY TO CARE FOR..."

Panel 3: The man looks thoughtful. He says, "I GUESS I'M JUST NOT A 'GREEN THUMB'..."

Panel 4: The woman says, "MORE OF A 'GREEN REAPER'..."
