Virgin Hill-more than just a coffee company

THE SCOOP MABLE HASTINGS

Virgin Hill coffee owners Tara Moar and Matthew Greer have long supported the youth programs of the Missisquoi North Volunteer Centre (CABMN) in Mansonville. The two have done fundraisers, contributed coffee for a variety of events and community gatherings as well as donating items to our second hand sale fundraisers. If the duo can be of help to kids, you can bet they will be.

Virgin Hill Roasters is a family-owned company with a passion for good coffee and bringing that passion to others in a variety of unique ways. Moar and Greer are determined to work hard and to bring quality to their business. I recently stopped by and the atmosphere including some amazing young people who work there, gave the place a really welcoming vibe and joyous feel. Ofcourse, one smile from Moar and whether the sun is shining or not, your day gets a little bit brighter.

On July 20, CABMN Youth Centre Coordinator, Ethan Ball decided to take some members of the Students Against Destructive Decisions (SADD) group to visit the Virgin Hill location in Foster. The Atelier de Café and drive-thru is open from Monday to Sunday 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. and is situated at 770 Ch. Lakeside. Ball felt that after receiving so much support, the youth should experience what Virgin Hill Roasters is all about. Those attending were not disappointed!

The place offers a large variety of uniquely named coffees in bags, reusable cups or to take out ready made to enjoy. There are also alternative milk products and coffee making accessories.

The youth her particularly struck by the atmosphere. All commented on the young people working there and how much they bring to the feel of the place.

Moar greeted the group and treated the group with a true heartfelt welcoming and some of the youth said they felt like a celebrity given the way they were made to feel. The ride back to Mansonville was filled with excitement and plans to take family members to visit Virgin Hill as well as a plan for a return by the present group of course.

Ethan Ball summed up the reason for the visit as follows:

"As a longstanding youth centre our organization is extremely lucky to have the support and implication of some great businesses and individuals. I truly feel that we must remember to recognize these people because without them and others like them, the Centre would not be able to achieve all that it does for youth of all ages in small communities like ours. Virgin Hill owners, Tara Moar and Matthew Greer are the perfect example of business owners giving back as well as giving youth a wonderful example to follow."
