Two Potton firefighters, Jean-Francois Giroux and Shawn Pouliot were decorated with a medal for 20 years of Exemplary Fire Service by the Governor General of Canada. The medals were presented to the two men by the Potton Municipal Council and Mayor on Monday evening, October 4 prior to their monthly meeting.

“The two men started in the department in 2000 and are now pillars of the department,” said James Bouthillier Prevention Officer for the Municipality of Potton in regards to the two firefighters honoured on Monday evening.

Since 1992 Potton Firefighters and First Responders have been providing fire safety and multi faceted rescue services in the area. From the original members to those who make up the present team, the services provided have evolved and expanded regularly in keeping residents safe. From the
