Missisquoi North Volunteer Centre (CABMN) expanding its senior services staff team

THE SCOOP MABLE HASTINGS

The Missisquoi North Volunteer Centre (CABMN) in Mansonville is expanding its Senior Services staff team welcoming Marie-Claude Joly who will join Monique Gilbert, Senior Services Coordinator and Angelle Laplume, who has worked with seniors in the MRC Memphremagog west through the CABMN for over 25 years.

Marie-Claude hails from Montreal and she first arrived in Potton in 2003. In 2018 she made the community her permanent home.

"We were first attracted to the area by the Owls Head ski mountain but since, it is the people who made us feel welcome and part of the community," she said. "We wanted this place to be our home."

Marie-Claude has a background as a project manager initially in the cultural and entertainment domain. Her last job was in an architectural firm. Marie-Claude was a CABMN volunteer and is also implicated in Municipal projects including the community garden. When she heard that there was a part-time position opening at the Volunteer Centre the fit seemed right and she felt that it would integrate her further into the community and working with the vibrant senior program she felt was a plus!

"My personal interests lie in horticulture and I love the outdoors; going for walks and skiing are two of my passions," she stated.

Marie-Claude is always hoping to grow and evolve. She is expressive, joyous and eager to help and learn.

"I look forward to sharing in the fun times and in helping through the tougher moments as well," she said. "I believe that being around people is one of the only ways of keeping your heart and mind healthy and experiencing all life has to offer."

As part of the Senior Services program team of the CABMN, Marie-Claude will work alongside Monique, Angelle, the CABMN staff and Board as well as the volunteers in bettering the lives for the senior population in the MRC Memphremagog west including the areas of Potton, Bolton-Est, Saint-Etienne-de-Bolton, Eastman and Stukely. To reach the senior services team call the main office of the CABMN located at 314B Principale in Mansonville at 450-292-3114. To find out more about the services offered for seniors and more visit the website at: www.cabmn.org

The CABMN extends its appreciation to volunteer, Lucie Maurer who assumed the position for the last few months and while she will continue as the CAB's Monday reception volunteer, she will now go back to enjoying her retirement where she can ski, golf and pickleball to her hearts content. Bravo Lucie!
