This past Saturday, the Missisquoi North Volunteer Centre CABMN Youth Centre held its Annual Christmas Jewelry, purse, scarf and miscellaneous sale fundraiser. With approximately $500 raised thanks to those who donated items as well as those who stopped by to purchase something.

“We can’t thank people enough for their generosity,” said Ethan Ball, Youth Coordinator. “We’ve held a lot of jewelry sales and we always need more people to donate items. It’s a great way to recycle old treasures and to help our programs for kids,” he added.

The Centre plans to hold another sale prior to Valentines Day. If you have jewelry, purses or scarves to donate, contact Mable Hastings, Executive Director at m.hastings@cabmn.org.

If you missed the Jewellery Sale, no worries. The holiday season is here and Potton is abuzz with upcoming activities.
