Town of Brome Lake to announce new measures to control short-term rentals

By Bird Bouchard
Local Journalism Initiative

New measures for short-term property rentals (31 days or fewer) in Brome Lake will allow homeowners to rent out their principal residence, but limit the rental of a secondary residence to certain areas in the municipality.

The town is expected to approve the new short-term rental plan at the council meeting on Monday, Feb. 6 at 7 p.m.

In order to provide a framework for the new measures, the town will impose certain obligations on those wishing to offer short-term rentals. Owners, regardless of the property, will

On Thursday, Feb. 2 from 1:30 to 4 p.m. the Missisquoi North Volunteer Centre (CABMN) senior services program offered a Make Your Own Vision Board workshop animated by CABMN staff member, Linda Orefice. Held at the Feather in the Wind Senior Centre of the CABMN the workshop was attended by six keen seniors who were ready to map out their future with hope, enthusiasm and promise.

A vision board is a collage representing your aspirations and life goals.

"This activity is designed to give you motivation for the coming stage(s) of your life," explained Linda Orefice. "It represents your goals and expresses hope in your future dreams and projects; it is meant to inspire you in your life journey," she added.

Using magazines filled with images and words, the participants cut, glued and visited as they watched their blank canvas come to life. Discussing their
