What a tangled web we weave-Halloween in Potton

THE SCOOP
MABLE HASTINGS

On Tuesday, Oct. 31 ghosts, goblins, witches and SPIDERS will give the kiddies something to talk about for years to come as Potton streets come alive in the spirit of Halloween. Mansonville, like many small towns has already started decorating for the occasion and the children have been pumpkin carving, costume choosing and making plans with friends to go out trick or treating together.

The Municipality of Potton is sponsoring the candy giveaway at the round barn site in Mansonville. Animated by the Missisquoi North Volunteer Centre CABMN youth program and volunteers, the Spider King is sure to tangle a web of fear for all who dare risk his eight legged antics to be rewarded a large chocolate bar for braving the stop! Houses along the Main Street as well as adjacent streets rarely cease to provide a treat for those in disguise.

On the south end of Main Street the fun continues with a suggested stop at the Youth Centre where the Mansonville Optimist Club is sponsoring the treats given out to children by a spooky trio of volunteers.

"It's that time of year where our youth centre is at its busiest," said Ethan Ball, CABMN Youth Centre Coordinator. "Last Saturday was our Annual Rock-a-thon fundraiser that raised a whopping $3,400 in support of SADD and Leadership programming and with that behind us, Halloween is next on the list and then it's a plethora of Christmas activities."

Drivers are reminded to use caution on Halloween night as the weather is often poor and ghosts and goblins come in all shapes and sizes wearing cumbersome costumes, filled with hasty excitement and not always paying full attention. The best Halloween is a safe one.

Youth rocked for four hours at Last Saturdays Annual Rock-a-thon fundraiser to support SADD and Leadership events and raised $3,400!
