Owl's Head presents 51st edition of The Hoot!

By Mable Hastings

Owl's Head Ski is proudly preparing for the 51st edition of the Hoot held each year as a fundraiser for the Canadian Ski Patrol!

The day promises great food, games, contests, raffles, music;

everything you need for family fun. Have you ever dreamed of hitting the slopes dressed as a unicorn or a tyrannosaurus? Now is your chance!

The Schedule for The Hoot, taking place on Saturday, March 30 is as follows:

9 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.-Costume contest with prize awarding ceremony.

10 a.m.: Penguin Race
10 a.m. to 4 p.m.-Inflatable games
11 a.m. to 3 p.m.-Taffy on snow
11 a.m. to 3 p.m.-BBQ on the terrace
2 p.m.-Slush cup

More details will be available as the big day approaches!

The Canadian Ski Patrol is made up of over 4,000 volunteers at some 200 alpine and Nordic ski resorts across the country. Ski Owl's Head is very proud of the patrollers who work so hard to keep skiers safe on their slopes.

The Hoot is a tradition in the area and many ski enthusiasts, families and those enjoying the winter outdoor sports and fun come together to celebrate the end of the season and the welcoming of spring. There is no lack of fun at this event and a large crowd always gathers. The slush cup is not to be missed. Never a dull moment, the slush cup held in the afternoon is a highlight.

See you at the year's HOOT!

At Owl's Head the ski patrol ensures the safety of the skiers, does prevention work and dispenses first aid care on the slopes throughout the season. Safety is central to every decision they make.

At Owl's Head the ski patrol ensures the safety of the skiers, does prevention work and dispenses first aid care on the slopes throughout the season. Safety is central to every decision they make. Each patroller is trained to respond in all situations, even in the event of a major intervention.

"We are at the Mountain to guarantee peace of mind," states the Ski Patrol website. "Your safety is our priority." And indeed, these volunteers a true to their word.
