Sunshine House welcomes new caregiver

THE SCOOP MABLE HASTINGS

The Sunshine House in Mansonville welcomes a new caregiver named Katie Mallaley who hails from St. Genevieve on the West Island. Katie and her dog, Fifi have relocated to Mansonville where they live presently with three clients and hope to find a fourth to add to the family atmosphere in a house located centrally in the village.

"Potton is a lovely place," shares Katie. "I am very excited about living in Mansonville and in getting to know the people here," she added.

The Sunshine House is a supervised residence that operates 24/7 looking for a fourth client compatible with the other three clients who have lived at Sunshine House since it opened.

The Board of administrators of the Sunshine House is made up of family members who assure that the caregiver receives the support needed and that the needs of the residents are at the forefront of the residence mission. Working together, the Caregiver and the administrators assure that the clients remain in their community in a happy and safe surrounding.

To date the Sunshine House has received a lot of support from community members and volunteers who implicate and value the mentally-challenged clients and are proud to assist in keeping them in their community and thriving.

Sunshine House is a unique place where the clients enjoy taking part in activities at their level of participation: taking walks and getting exercise, crafts, music and enjoy healthy meals together. When you meet the clients, it is easy to see the bond they have and the affection they feel for each other.

For more information about the Sunshine House or to see if the residence is the right place for someone you might know, you can get information by contacting the manager, Debbie Bishop at 438-405-7395.

Potton extends a warm welcome to Katie and Fifi and we hope that together with the Sunshine House clients she will quickly refer to Mansonville as "home."

Caisse Desjardins sponsors a second blood clinic at CSVM

The Massawippi Valley Foundation has announced the inauguration of a blood clinic every Friday morning at the Massawippi Valley Health Centre (CSVM) in Ayer's Cliff. The Health Centre has for years been running a blood clinic on Wednesday mornings - the demand has been such that a second clinic became necessary. Caisse Desjardins du Lac

Memphremagog will be sponsoring this second Clinic for the next year. M. Patrick Gravel, Director General of the Caisse said, "We are proud to see the growth of the Health Center and are very happy to be able to support the blood clinic on Fridays... Being present for our community and being able to take concrete action by supporting promising projects for our community is part of our DNA ." Earlier, the Massawippi Foundation donated funds to purchase a refrigerated centrifuge, a requirement of the laboratory where blood samples are analysed.

CSVM is a community-owned health cooperative that serves citizens in the Massawippi Valley region. All citizens are welcome to become members.
