Where does the time go?

coming of age ritual, I can't help but wonder as I look at Savannah Jersey, how many other people are looking at a High School graduate and wondering the same thing; where did the time go? Only yesterday it seems, Savannah was a giggling blue eyed four-year-old waiting to be old enough to start in our weekly Girls Group program.

Savannah did indeed complete Girls Group. She was a member of Mansonville's Students Against Destructive Decisions (SADD) and was dancing in our dance program from the get go! Like her Mom before her and her sister who follows, Savannah has always been committed to giving her all.

It is evident that this has been Savannah's approach to High School given the news of her accomplishments recognized this week. On May 19th. She was awarded a 3 year Nursing from the BMP foundation. She is going into the nursing program at Champlain College in Lennoxville.

On May 31 at Massey Vanier's Awards Ceremony she received the following:

*Kimberley and Melissa Wright Memorial Bursary

*The Scott Swift Memorial Fund Bursary

*The St. John's Lodge Ralph Knowlton Memorial Bursary

*The Royal Canadian Legion Branch #23 Brome Scholarship

*The Awards Helper Award

*A Dance Scholarship

*The MES Governing Board and PPO Bursary

*The MV Student Council Leadership Award

*The Forensics Prize

*The Spanish Prize

And, on June 2: a Dedication prize in Swimming and she helped present the Swimming Banner to the Vice Principals!

"Her hard work has paid off", said her Mom, Tara Jersey, "Another push with exams, graduation and prom and this chapter of Savannah's life comes to a close. Her Dad and I could not be prouder," she added.

As a member of the Ken and Linda Jersey family, one of Potton's long-standing farming families, Savannah has a love for the farm running through her veins. Savannah is an avid horseback rider and like her Mom and younger sister, sunsets enjoyed in the company of their family horse are treasured.

For Savannah's grandmother, Juanita Wighton, a long-time school board commissioner with the Eastern Townships school board, her granddaughter's academic achievements fill her with pride. Knowing her I can see her smiling while saying, "that's my girl."

As I reflect upon Savannah's story, just one of many, I realize there are others not only in Potton but from both near and far who are ending one part of their journey to go on to the next. Others who received academic, sports and other awards noting their accomplishments. Others who volunteered in their communities and others who make their families, friends and neighbours so proud.

I join you all in saluting these young people. Savannah's story is one and when multiplied, we are given great hope for our world and the future. Where did the time go? Well, as I look into the eyes of the giggling faces of those finishing their first year in the CABMN youth programs I can't help but smile because in no time at all, they will be walking across a high school stage with a diploma in hand and the hope for the future in their dreams.
